SACMAT 2015 PhD Consortium

Call for Presentations

The PhD Consortium will take place in conjunction with the ACM Symposium on Access Control Models and Technologies (SACMAT), to be held on June 1 – 3, 2015 at the Vienna University of Technology.

We particularly encourage submissions from students who are at the last stages of their doctoral work but with sufficient time prior to completing their dissertation, and from those who are in the beginning stages but have a specific research proposal who can obtain valuable feedback about their research plans.

If you are accepted to present in the PhD Consortium, you will have the opportunity to attend the full SACMAT Symposium from June 1 – 3, 2015 for free!***

Important Deadlines:

Doctoral Consortium Submission: May 17, 2015

Author Notification: May 21, 2015

SACMAT 2015 PhD Consortium: June 3, 2015 (afternoon)
